Attorney Richard J. Reimer Teaches Fiduciary Duties of Pension Fund Trustees

[Oak Brook, Illinois] Attorney Richard J. Reimer instructed representatives from police and fire pension boards across Illinois about fiduciary duties of pension fund trustees. The class is part of the Illinois Public Pension Fund Association ("IPPFA") Certified Trustee Education Program. The certification has been affiliated with Northern Illinois University since 1999. This four-part educational program is designed to increase a trustee's basic knowledge of fiduciary responsibility, fundamentals of investing, funding and actuarial concepts, medical and disability issues, administration of pension benefits, and legal and ethical issues.
